

Florida FFA Leadership Training Center/ Catfish Creek Eatery
5000 Firetower Rd
Haines City, FL 33844
863-439-7332
<http://flaffa.org/flaltc/>

Headline: February 2022 Spotlight - Florida FFA Leadership Training Center

Haines City, FL - Catfish Creek Eatery is a Florida rustic dining experience with a twist. Located inside the FFA Leadership Center Lodge on the shores of Lake Pierce and nestled among the wildlife of Catfish Creek, the Eatery has the most beautiful sunsets and views of nature. It has indoor and outdoor seating and uses the freshest ingredients, homegrown herbs, and local Florida farm-raised beef. All of your meals are prepared and cooked to order.

The Future Farmers of America, or FFA, Leadership Center is considered an asset to the FFA Foundation and is a non-profit organization. The Leadership Center and Catfish Creek Eatery are open to the public for an amazing dining experience, family reunions, team-building, retreats, or just a home away from home. The FFA Leadership Center uses their revenue to provide FFA student scholarships.

FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education. The FFA Center has one hundred and twenty-three acres of natural hiking trails, pristine sunsets, wildlife, Lodging, and a myriad of activities, which make for a wonderful experience for everyone.

The Catfish Creek Eatery is open Wednesday through Saturday 12 - 8 p.m. The address is 5000 Firetower Road in Haines City, FL. Call 863-439-7332 *1 for guest services, reservations, and information.

Contact: Florida FFA Leadership Training Center
863-439-7332 *1